

Build a Better World

Cooperation

Any student, faculty, and staff can join as a member. S/he uses the services, owns and organizes the cooperative. University cooperative makes sustainable society based on member's democratical involvement and participation.

Welfare

University Cooperative offers the best welfare services on and off campus to support member's study, and research.

Mutual Interest

With its members, University cooperative finds mutually beneficial ways for University and community.

Korea Federation of University Cooperatives

You can also join University Cooperative!

For more information, contact your University cooperative office
You can find the details from our website.

Korea Federation of University Cooperatives

Address _____
2nd Fl., 36, Dongsomunro 3-gil, Seongbuk-gu, Seoul, Republic of Korea

Contact _____
✉ univcoopkr@gmail.com
🏠 www.univcoop.or.kr

Cooperative Enterprises

Member's Democratical Control and Participation

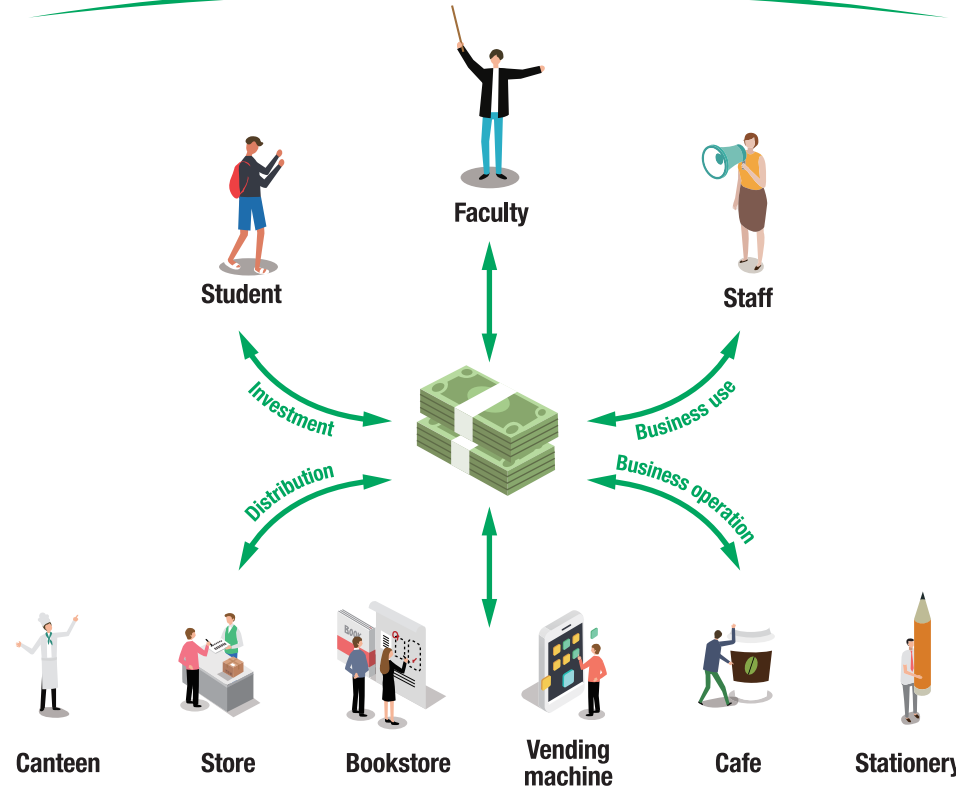

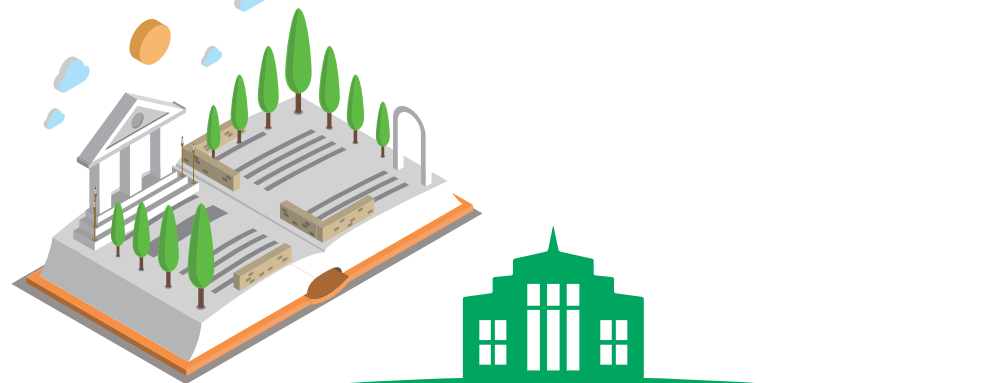

Member-Centered Services

Develop Mutual Interest with Community

University Cooperatives

Current Status

The University Cooperative is established by its members - student, faculty, and staff- to make their life on campus better. It provides various services to our members and seeks mutual development of its members based on core value of cooperation.

What is Korea Federation of University Cooperatives?

Korea Federation of University Cooperatives aims to benefit its member cooperatives by providing service of education, joint business, government and international relations.

- Government Relations
- Joint Business
- Consultation on Establishment
- International Relations
- Education
- Publication

since 1988
35 University Cooperatives
144 thousand individual members